

Location: Bratislava
Contract Value: 2.79 mil. EUR
Completion: 04/2004

A new inspection and quarantine facility at M.R.Štefánik airport in Bratislava was built to control transfer of animals and other organic and non-organic material.

It was a design and build project and we were in charge of preparation of complex project documentation, all required legal permissions and delivery of the building.